AROUND

THE GROUNDS

If the second week of WDFNL finals is anything like the first then supporters are in for a real treat!

This Saturday we get to see the minor premiers contest the second semi-final after a deserved week off.

In the football, undefeated Merrivale will be confident it can get the job done against reigning premier Nirranda and move straight into the decider.

An after-the-siren goal to the Tigers was all that separated the teams the last time they met, meaning the Blues are capable of springing an upset.

In the netball, minor premier Nirranda shapes as a big challenge for Merrivale, however the Tigers' win against the Blues earlier in the season will give the underdogs hope.

In the first football semi-final, Panmure will back itself to overcome Kolora-Noorat after falling just short against the Blues in the first round of finals.

Conversely, the Power will be riding a wave of confidence after their last-gasp win against Russells Creek and have the big-game players to push the Bulldogs.

Timboon Demons' netballers rose to the occasion during their narrow elimination-final win against Kolora-Noorat, however Panmure will provide a sterner test in the semi-final.

The Bulldogs were competitive in their loss to Merrivale and will certainly have a point to prove.
